Court Closes Saturday.

The Chick murder case came to a close Friday night, and on Saturday were the following cases:

Eustace F. Bennett of Norway, who had pleaded guilty as common seller, received a sentence of $100 fine and 30 days in jail, and in default of fine 30 days additional.

Joseph W. O'Brion of Portland, who had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the camp of Charles T. Ladd of Fryeburg, after some inquiries by the court, was sentenced to six months in the work jail at Auburn.

Bail was ordered defaulted in the cases of Clarence Robar, James Poland, Lewis Cohen and John Russell, who were under bonds but had not appeared at this term.

The trial of Allen Linnell of Wilson's Mills was begun just before noon, Saturday. This is a case appealed from a trial justice court. William M. Adams, a game warden, charged Linnell with killing and having in possession a deer in close time. Linnell was a guide and was at the time the deer was alleged to have been killed, in August 1905, with a party of Parmacheenee club members at Rump pond. Adams testified that he was at the camp and saw in the food chest some fresh meat that he called venison. Linnell told him that a fawn was found in the woods by one of the party in a very feeble condition, that they took it to camp and tried to save its life, but that it died that night. They saved the skin to have it mounted for one of the party. Adams produced the skin in court, it was that of a very small fawn. He found a hole in the shoulder, which he called a bullet hole.

The defence states that the fawn was found as above stated, and an account of the finding was given by Al. Hurt, one the guides. After it died, in skinning it, a hole was found and a bullet was looked for but none was found.

County Attorney Barnes for the State; H. H. Hastings for Linnell.

After the evidence had been all put in, Mr. Hastings, counsel for respondent, made a motion to discharge his client on the ground that the evidence would not warrant conviction. The court sustained the motion and the respondent was discharged.

Edward Siddall of Rumford Falls for common seller, having pleaded guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs taxed at $31.56, and in addition to 30 days in jail. In default of payment to 30 days additional. On the indictment for single sale he was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs taxed at $49 61. In default of payment to 30 days additional. This sentence to take effect after the expiration of sentence for common seller.

Louis Cohen of Rumford for nuisance was given a fine of $100 and costs taxed at $20.56 and imprisonment for 30 days. In default of payment to 30 days additional in jail.

James Poland of Mechanic Falls for common seller was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs taxed at $20.65, and to 30 days in jail; in default of payment to 30 days additional. He had been surrendered into jail by his bondsmen, who earlier in the session had been defaulted.

Roland McPhee of Rumford for single sale paid a fine of $50 and costs, taxed at $11.33, but this did not satisfy the court, who gave him 30 days additional in jail.

Georgianna Patoin of Rumford contested the nuisance indictment. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and she was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs taxed at $26.25 and in addition to 30 days in jail; in default of payment to 30 days additional.

Wesley Chick, who was convicted of the murder of David Varney, was taken to the State prison at Thomaston, Tuesday.

R. E. Burrows, an officer from Thomaston, came to South Paris, Monday evening, and started for Thomaston, with Chick on the early train Tuesday morning. He was accompanied by another man as a pilot but there were not two officers as has been reported.

The case of Joe Bill was begun Tuesday morning, and was sharply contested, County Attorney Barnes for the State, A. E. Stearns, of Rumford Falls, for respondent. The charge was search and seizure. Bill keeps a store and lodging house at Rumford Falls, where the past winter he has had 10 Italians who lodge with him and board themselves, buying their food of Mr. Bill. They frequently order kegs of beer and divide it among the crowd. Bill claims that he never sold beer to anyone and only bought it to divide among his lodgers.

The case took up the most of Tuesday, and Wednesday morning the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Sentence was not given at this time.

The case of the State of Maine vs Lewis Olson. Olson was charged with the violation of the game laws. It seems that Olson sent in application to be given a license to guide, and before the application was granted, he took a party to guide after getting the statement from a person of authority that it would be all right, but for some reason the application was refused and Olson was charged with violation of the law. The respondent was discharged without sentence.

State of Maine vs Don I. Kimball and Ansel W. Mason, breaking, entering and larceny. Nol. Pros. as to Mason, Nol. Pros. as to breaking and entering. Mason was discharged and a fine of $75 was imposed upon Kimball in default of payment to 60 days in jail.

C. C. Italien of Rumford Falls, search and seizure. Plead guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs taxed at $9.20. In default of payment 60 days imprisonment in jail. Fine and costs paid, respondent discharged.

Polly Prodopio, of Rumford Falls, search and seizure. Plead guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs, taxed at $13.22 and in default of payment 60 days imprisonment in jail. Fine and costs paid, respondent discharged.

The next case was State of Maine vs. Lewis Hanson. County Attorney Barnes for State. Wright and Wheeler for Hanson. Charge is larceny. Hanson attended the North Waterford fair last fall, and the next day, Sunday, Oct. 8, with two other fellows, started for South Paris. On the way one of the fellows, known as Happy, called at a house to get something to eat, while Hanson and the other fellow, known as Kiko, kept on a ways further, then sat down and rested. Kiko seperated from him and Hanson hasn't seen him since. Happy had a dress suit case but Hanson did not know what was in it. They came to South Paris, then later went to Berlin, N. H., and Happy was short of cash and sold Hanson an overcoat for 50 cents. On this Sunday, Oct. 8, there was taken from the house of Alonzo B. Brickett, who lives on the North Waterford road about 4 or five miles from Norway, an overcoat and other small articles. The missing overcoat is said to be the one worn by Hanson and he was arrested at Oxford station by Stephen G. Jillson a deputy sheriff and taken to the jail, Oct. 12.

Lewis Hanson alias Joseph Lawson was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the work jail at Auburn.

Wednesday afternoon was devoted to the case of the State of Maine vs. Washington Billings. The charge was rape. Amy Cole is a girl 13 years old and lives in Woodstock. She helped Mr. Billings in haying last year and it is at this time that it is alleged that the assault was committed. The evidence was Emily E. McCrellis, aged 78 years, grandmother of Amy Cole.

Washington Billings is a man of 58 years, and lives at North Woodstock. Testified that Amy Cole was at his place considerably from July 1st to the middle of the month. He states that he never had any improper relations with her. Told her about the middle of July not to come to his place any more. She has never been to his house since. He also hired his brother and his boy, also Amy's brother to help in haying.

Chas. H. Buck, jr. married Amy's mother, she died recently. Had a talk with Amy about Mr. Billings, she said it was not so but that her grandmother had promised her $2.50 and a new dress if she would state so.

Cullen Abbott had been acquainted with Amy Cole since she was a baby. Her reputation for truth and veracity is bad.

Samuel Russ lives at North Woodstock. Knew Amy Cole. Her reputation is bad.

County Attorney Barnes for the state; James Wright for defense.

Clarence Robar of Rumford Falls plead guilty to a charge of fornication. Sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Patrick Papospa was found guilty of a search and seizure charge and fined $100 and costs amounting to $15 58.

The case of Herbert W. McDourell of Mexico is now on trial and is probably the last criminal case that will be tried this term. He is charged with forging three notes, all on the Rumford Falls Trust Co. The amounts are $18, $11.40 and $6.25.

Notes.

The trial of the case of Thompson vs. C. B. Cummings & Sons, regarding the right of way of boats and logs in and over the water of the lower Pennesseewassee Lake in Norway, was put over to the October term. Both parties were ready for a trial now and were much disappointed that they could not be heard, as well as the whole community. Judge Spear must begin a term of court in Penobscot county next Tuesday, and all his time this week is occupied in divorce suits and criminal matters and there was no other judge at liberty in the State. We must have more judges on the bench or less criminal matters. The October term last fall was cut short several days as this one has been and the work of the Supreme Court is getting behind in this county.

Friday and Saturday will be devoted to hearing divorce matters.

When the sheriff with an aid arrived at J. B. Poland's to arrest him and take him to South Paris, he found him very sick in bed with heart trouble. A physician had to be called and after an examination it was decided to be safe as for as his bodily health to take him to court. Mr. Poland's home is about six miles from Mechanic Falls in what is known as "Rabbit Valley" near the "Promised Land." The buildings are long and low and have been built over 100 years. The farm contains 600 acres. Mr. Poland stands over six feet high and is of a powerful build. He is about 61 years of age. Originally he came from Peru, but for 22 years has lived here. He served in the Civil War and draws a pension. The farm house has seen some dark deeds. Here George Knights murdered his wife. Here in 1878 the Ordway boy hung himself.

Co. D Notes.

Capt. J. Waldo Nash, Dr. B. F. Bradbury, Lieutenant James A. Palmer, of Norway, and Dr. H. R. Ferris, of Oxford, attended the officers school held in Portland, last Thursday.

Lieutenant James A. Palmer has been transfered from Co. C to first Lieutenant of Co. D.

Vice-Lieutenant F. A. Hayden has resigned. An election has been ordered to fill the position of Geo. A. Wilson, jr., who has also resigned.

The match which Capt. J. Waldo Nash has been trying to arrange according to the challenge he sent out has not as yet materialized as a reasonable agreement cannot be reached. The challenge was issued to Co. M of Westbrook, Co. G of Biddeford, the four Portland companies and the two divisions of the Naval Reserve located at Portland, to pick a squad of 40 men from their combined ranks to shoot in competition with Co. D of Norway. Another challange has been issued to Co. C of Auburn, and Co. D of Lewiston, of the first regiment and Co's. B. and D. of the second regiment of Lewiston, to choose a squad to meet Co. D.

The men of Co. D are ready to shoot when the right kind of an agreement can be made and $50 has been put up by them already.

Norway Municipal Court.

There was a case Monday of Oscar I. Pitts vs. Leda Pitts, for assault and battery. The case was not settled but was carried over to next Tuesday.

Norway High School.

Tickets for the Junior prize speaking are now on sale. The seats will be checked at Stone's drug store, beginning Saturday, April 14th.

Dr. Tenney, oculist, will be at his new office rooms over Shurtleff's drug store, South Paris, Tuesday of next week, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

FACTS AND FIGURES ON COST OF ROAD BUILDING.

In our next paper we shall present to you a "technical letter" regarding the cost of machinery and road building.

It is written by John P. Conkling of New York, civil engineer, who knows whereof he talks—he has had considerable experience in road making and the figures are based on the New Jersey scale of prices for wages—which possibly would be somewhat reduced here.

The article is worth reading, as it shows you approximately the cost of making "MacAdam" roads.

Read it, figure it out and tell us honestly whether we can afford to build roads or travel in the mud.

On this subject you are welcome to space in this paper.

I want the road commissionership of Norway for ten years, and I want the people to know something of what it is to cost them if I succeed in capturing the office.

I am a candidate.

Fred Laferrier has been in Norway the past week.

R. L. Bickford has gone to Waterford on a business trip.

Jason Rowe and Royal Cordwell went to Lewiston, Saturday

Annie Simonton is stopping at the M. E. parsonage this week.

Miriam Calef is spending her vacation with her folks at Hebron.

Mrs. George L. Noyes has been visiting in Fryeburg and Portland.

W. C. Brown, proprietor of Novelty mill, has returned to his business.

Ellen Brown is in Portland where she is under medical treatment for her eyes.

Rev. C. A. Brooks was called to Bryant's Pond this week on account of sickness.

Mina Jewett returned home Saturday morning. She has been caring for Miss McDonald.

There will be Communion and reception of members at the Methodist church next Sabbath.

Fire in a chimney at L. I. Gilbert's kept some of the fire department busy all day Friday.

The fine sleighing of Tuesday is a thing of the past. A great part of this change was made in one day.

New England Order of Protection will give a social benefit hop at Grand Army hall, Thursday evening, April 5th.

The illustrated lecture on Ben Hur given at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, was very good.

"Presto, change," may well be said of Norway's meat markets. We may have four or five and again only one or two.

Our milliners are busily engaged in forming the creations the ladies expect to wear later. The openings will be in the near future.

It is understood that L. M. Lunt closes out her dry and fancy goods business April 1st. Mrs. E. F. Smith has been in the store during the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Moody of East Stoneham visited at Percy Nevers', recently. C. F. Small and grand-daughter, Helen McAllister, of East Stoneham visited at Mr. Nevers', Sunday.

Geo. Locke, of Water street, had a valuable cow die Monday morning. The cow was apparently as well as usual the night before. Mr. Locke had been offered $45 for her in the fall.

The Epworth League are to have a birthday anniversary of the league the evening of April 4th, at the M. E. church. Ice cream and other good things will probably be served.

J. W. Swan of Montreal was in Norway the first of the week. He started to visit a brother in Sherbrook, but finding his brother was not at home he concluded to visit his Norway friends.

W. G. Rand of the Norway & Western Railroad was in town this week. He reports work is to commence at once on the building of the road. Building material is expected to arrive within a few days.

B. H. McAllister is thinking some of going West on a visit. He is closing out his personal effects at auction. He is to do some grafting of apple trees and is to trim the orchard of J. S. & J. H. Millett before he leaves.

Next week we will print a short story as told one of our business men by the late General Beal, showing the kindness of heart and keen sense of justice that the General was known to possess, by all who knew him personally.

The Browning club meets with Mrs. John C. Shepherd, next Monday evening. They have a miscellaneous program. The Barton club meets with Mrs. A. T. Favor this Thursday afternoon. This meeting is along educational lines.

Marguerite Finney went to Lewiston, the past week to her brother's, Jameson Finney's. Dr. B. F. Bradbury and her mother, Mrs. Bradbury, accompanied her. It is understood that Miss Finney will in a short time submit to a surgical operation.

Wm. W. Holt at the Center has four incubators in operation and chickens are hatching by the wholesale. He has wintered between 400 and 500 hens, Rhode Island Reds, and they have been great winter layers. He expects to raise a thousand chickens this spring.

J. A. Burke of Kennebunk, of the firm of Burke & Warren, dealers and manufacturers of lumber, visited Frank Kimball, his brother-in-law, the past week. Mr. Burke at one time attended the same fitting school at New Hampton, N. H., that did the editor of this paper. He made a pleasant call at this office and talked over old acquaintances of the early days when we were young.

Arthur J. Plummer of Haverhill, Mass., is making friends in this vicinity a visit. He has been here only once in some eleven years. He is shoemaking in that city. His daughter, Hazel, is bookkeeper in the McGrange Department Store. Mr. Plummer has been visiting his old home and friends in Sweden. He also called on his brother-in-law, Dr. C. L. Pike, of Biddeford.

Struck by an Engine.

Mrs. Alice M. Caverley, of South Paris, was struck by a freight train in the railroad yard near the station at South Paris, about 7.25 o'clock Monday morning, receiving serious injuries from which she died about 20 minutes later.

Mrs. Caverley lives on High street, a little ways from the Nicholas street crossing near the sled factory.

She was entirely deaf, her hearing having been effected by sickness when she was a child. Monday morning she started to go to her brother's Luther M. Winslow, who lives on Skillings Avenue, and it being near to go down the railroad track she started that way.

An east bound freight train came into the yard soon after she started and overtook her when she was nearly opposite the house of Alfred H. Jackson.

Mrs. Caverley was walking on the west side of the main track at the end of the ties. The engineer blew the whistle vigorously as she approached her. At the first blowing of the whistle the engineer thought she swung from the track but just before the engine reached her she swung towards the track again. The engine was one of the large ones having a large iron snow plough on the front, this struck her, throwing her to the right between the tracks of the siding. She was taken to her home at once and Dr. B. F. Bradbury, of Norway, and Dr. J. G. Littlefield, of South Paris, were summoned. It was found that her back was broken, and all of the ribs on one side and ten on the other, her head was also badly hurt. She did not regain conciousness and death came in about 20 twenty minutes after the accident.

Mrs. Caverley was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther P. Winslow, of Paris, and was born Feb. 21, 1853. She worked for Allard & Moulton, tailors, Norway, for 7 years. She was a woman loved and respected by all who knew her. She leaves a husband but no children.

Third Anniversary.

Oxford Castle No. 2, Knights of the Golden Eagle, celebrated their third anniversary of the institution of the castle, Wednesday evening, by entertaining their members, their ladies and a few invited friends. A bountiful baked bean and salad supper was served to over 100 at about half-hast seven. After supper, which was served in Grange hall., the guests proceeded to the Castle hall. (Ryerson's) Members of the Castle went through the drill in a very pleasing manner. This was followed by a dance. There were about fifty couples on the grand march and on each dance there were as many as the floor space would accomodate. Good music was furnished by M. S. Stearns and Walter Young. Every one present seemed to enjoy the evening very much and the comments we heard were "Never had a better time." "Best time of the season."

"East Lynne."

"East Lynne," which is to be seen at the Norway Opera House, Saturday, Mar. 31, is a play of to-day, its men, women and children are those of every day life and there is nothing commonplace in the unfolding of the plot. It contains a wholesome heart interest and there is a clevsr intermingling of comedy and pathos which keeps the audience in a pleasurable state of excitement. The old tale of the fight between virtue and vice is told in a convincing manner, and not once is there the semblance of improbability, the fault of so many dramas. Scenically, the production is said to be a triumph of modern stage craft, and judging from the names in the cast, the company is a competent one in every sense of the word. The organization carry a small, but high class band and orchestra of nine solo musicians. Parade at noon. The prices of admission have been placed at 25, 35 and 50 cents. Tickets on sale at Stone's.

Dr. H. P. Jones has a crocus blooming in his garden. This must be the "First flower of spring."

It has been announced that the Grand Trunk has completed arrangements for a telephone system in all its stations from Portland to Chicago. In time it is thought telephones may largely take the place of telegraph instruments along the line.

J. C. True visited Madison last week and has a pleasant word to say of C. H. Prince of the Bulletin and E. A. Merriman of real estate fame of that town. We learned from him that the editor of this paper is to visit Pierce pond this spring on a fishing trip.

Fred H. Cummings captured a star-faced mole, Tuesday, near Clarence M. Smith's piazza. Fred said he caught the mole by the nape of the neck, emptied some oranges out of a market basket he was carrying, put the beast in, and gave his friends the benefit of a look at him.

Five steam saw mills laid up for repair last week. They were Partridge Bros. at York's Mills; Emerson's, Mutiny Brook, Waterford; Mell Knights' at Bisbeetown, Waterford; C. B. Cummings & Sons at Norway village; and a steam mill at East Waterford. Busy time for the machine shop people.

Frank Richardson, the barber, is moving from the Abbie J. Tubbs rent opposite the Congregational church to Frank Hurd's house on Pleasant street. Mr. Richardson has been at work at the Cook Barber shop during the sickness of Frank Kimball some eight weeks past. Mr. Kimball has recovered and returned to work last Monday.

The E. N. Swett Shoe Co., is a new name for an old firm on our street. For some 15 years it has been known as the Smiley Shoe Store having been established by the Smiley Bros., who sold it some 14 years ago to the A. H. Berry Shoe Co. of Portland and bnsiness has been conducted here by E. N. Swett during this time. The officers of the company were elected in Portland last Monday as follows:

Pres.—A. H. Berry.
Manager—E. N. Swett.
Clerk and Treas.—H. L. Berry.

The same persons comprise the Board of directors. Capital stock $8,000, all of which is paid in. Stock shares $100 each. They have the right under articles of incorporation to wholesale, retail and manufacture shoes. Business will be conducted at the store as formerly.

Mrs. Myranda Sawyer.

Mrs. Myranda Town (Mills) Sawyer died Monday morning, after a short sickness with pneumonia. Mrs. Sawyer was the daughter of the late Olive (Stevens) and Andrew Mills, of Norway. She was born in Norway, Oct. 29, 1829. Several years ago she came to the old home farm, above Norway Lake village near the Waterford road, to care for her mother, and since her mother's death she has remained there as housekeeper for her brother, W. Clinton Mills. Mr. Mills had been sick several weeks and had been cared for by his sister. He was very sick and it was thought Sunday, that neither Mr. Mills nor Mrs. Sawyer could live. Mr. Mills is now a little better.

Mrs. Sawyer was buried at the Center, Wednesday.

Marriage.

Warren A. McAllister of Portland and Callie H. Smith of Yarmouth were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage, Monday evening, by Rev. C. A. Brooks. Some friends were present, the ring service was used and a very pleasant occasion enjoyed. After their wedding tour they will make it their home in Woodfords.

Mrs. Mary Bennett has some tulips in her front yard which came up the third week in February. They lived through the recent cold weather and are still growing.

Mrs. Orin Kimball, Paris street, who has been suffering with a severe ateack of catarrahal bronchitis for the past seven weeks, is able to be about the house again.

The Lewiston News says:—Lieut. J. M. Palmer of Co. C, Auburn, has been transferred to the crack Norway company. Mr. Palmer was a very popular officer as well as able one.

Otis Andrews of Lawrence, Mass., and Lovell made us a call this week. Mr. Andrews, with his brother Elwell, has been lumbering the past winter near Lovell Center. They have put on Kezar pond some sixty thousand feet. Otis is visiting his brotner, C. G. Andrews of South Paris, before his return to Lawrence. He and his wife will return to Lovell later, and occupy their summer residence there.

The Veranda club supper was a success as usual. The following program was finely rendered:

Some years ago Freeland Howe bought the chandelier used in the Universalist church here. It was when they put electric lights in the church. His intention was to present it to the church at West Sumner but they had recently procured one, so Mr. Howe had it boxed in good shape and has been waiting for some church that might need it. He has refused several times to sell it. When Rev. H. H. Hoyt of Brownfield was here the first of winter he told him of the chandelier he had in waiting. A few days ago Mr. Howe got word from the Universalist chapel at North Fryeburg that they had a place for it in their church. He replied by telling them to come and get it and a team was promptly sent across country and the chandelier was taken over there and is now doing service in a Universalist parish.

Prof. Verne M. Whitman, principal of the Peterboro, N. H. high school, gave a birthday party to his friends. The following account of it is taken from the local village paper:—Prof. Verne M. Whitman received about a doaen of his gentlemen friends at his home on Union street last evening in honor of his birthday, which occurred a week ago, but on account of unavoidable circumstances the observance of the occasion was deferred. During the arrival of the guests an orchestra rendered selections in the study. The first part of the evening was spent in card playing, and sociability ran high, after which the doors into the dining room were opened and the gentlemen were invited to partake of a delicious lunch which had been prepared by the wife of the host. By the earnest solicitation of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Whitman rendered a few vocal selections and during the evening the violin and guitar were "touched up" by the host, and the hostess gave selections on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman are not only fine musicians but are royal entertainers as well. At midnight the party dispersed, wishing Prof. Whitman many returns of his birthday anniversary.

SOUTH PARIS.

Funeral of Mrs. Lizzie A. Bonney.

The funeral of Mrs. Lizzie A. Bonney was held at her late home on Myrtle street, South Paris, Sunday, March 18, Rev. H. A. Clifford officiating. Her death was the result of a long illness which she bore patiently. Mrs. Bonney may be truthfully called a good woman, of a kindly disposition, she was always a good neighbor and her friends are many in the communites in which she has lived. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Rowe, of Oxford, and this town was her girlhood home and for the first ten years of her married life to B. H. Bonney. Later they moved to North Norway and then to Norway village. Their home has been at South Paris, for the past three years.

A husband and five children, three boys and two girls survive her, the oldest of which is Mrs. Alice Chase, who resides at South Paris. Mrs. Bonney never united with any faith; she was a willing worker for all things that created good for her community, and her children have been brought up under Christian influence. The employes of the Paris Manufacturing Co. where Mr. Bonney is employed assisted in a generous sum of money and flowers that have been greatly appreciated by the family in their bereavement. The Sabbath School class where her children attended contributed many beautiful flowers, as did the neighbors and friends. Interment will be in Oxford, her former home. Her age was 51 years, 7 months and 16 days.

Mrs. Edith Pike is in Lewiston, for a few days.

Mrs. Lewis Monk is suffering from bronichal trouble.

Nellie Guilford of Old Orchard is visiting Mrs. H. A. Clifford.

Mrs. Agnes L. Penfold and son recently visited in Gorham, N. H.

Mrs. W. O. Frothingham is suffering from a severe throat trouble.

Mabel Brooks has accepted a position as soprano in the Universalist choir.

The class of 1905 gives a sociable at the New Hall, this Thursday evening.

NOW BUILD YOURSELF UP.

YOUR BLOOD IS POOR AND THIN, YOUR NERVES ARE WEAK, YOU ARE RUN DOWN IN HEALTH.

Take Dr. Greene's Nervura, Best of All Spring Medicines, Most Wonderful Restorative and Strengthener Known to Science--Makes Pure Blood, Strong Nerves, Vigorous Bodies.

Spring finds you with thin, poor, impoverished blood, weak, relaxed, and unstrung nerves. You are without your usual strength, energy, and vim; you feel that you are out of order, without being exactly sick. The cold wind seems to blow clear through you, a storm chills your marrow, and you perhaps have rheumatism, neuralgia, billiousness or kidney disease because of your disordered condition. You must take the best medicine to give you renewed strength and vitality, the best blood builder and purifier, the best nerve strengthener and invigorator. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the best medicine in the world to do all this. It purifies and enriches the blood, feeds, strengthens, and invigorates the nerves—in fact, it makes the weak strong, the sick well, and will cure your stomach trouble, your billiousness, your kidney trouble, rheumatism, or neuralgia.

Dr. Orlanda Kiser, 954 Reese Ave., Lima, Ohio, writes:

"Many years ago I was unfortunate enough to lose my health, and, while endeavoring to regain the same, gradually grew worse, until I became a complete wreck in every respect. My nervous system was entirely shattered; the nerves controling the heart became weak and the heart's action irregular, which was a source of great alarm to me. I was unable to sleep, digestion was interfered with, and, generally speaking, I considered my time short for this earth. I became discouraged and gave up the thought of ever being a well man again. To-day I am a well man in every sense of the word, and all through the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, of which I am proud to speak and stand ready to give a helping word to suffering humanity. My health is my greatest blessing, and words fail to express the gratitude I feel for Dr. Greene and his wonderful remedy."

Take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy now for your spring medicine. This grand remedy has the confidence of the people as no other remedy has because it is the prescription of a regular physician, Dr. Greene, 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., who has the largest practice and makes the most cures of any physician in the world, and who can be consulted without charge by anybody, personally, or by writing about your case.

Guilty of Murder.

When we went to press last Thursday noon the case of the State vs. Chick was before the court.

The next witness, Herbert L. Ridlon, first selectman of Porter, is a farmer and lives in the southern part of the town about a mile from Kezar Falls village and three miles from the David Varney place. Had known Wesley Chick four or five years. Learned of the shooting about 6.30 Wednesday evening, Dec. 6th.

On learning of the affair he went to Dr. Devereaux's and after learning how Varney was shot, got a horse and went to the Varney place. Later that night Isaac Stanley, George Weeks, Roland Stanley and Ridlon went to different places in search of Wesley. Inquired everywhere for Chick, at the David Varney house, then at Bickford's and Andrew Varney's. No one had seen him.

Then went to Charles Young's house on new road. Left team there and Charles Young went along with us to Hattie Douglass place. Young went into house and the rest surrounded the house. The house was lighted and noises within. Door fastened but when Young tried to get in they came and unfastened it. Young stayed in about 5 minutes, then he came out and all went in. Young took lamp and went to back of room, where there was a quilt hung over a door, removing the quilt he found Wesley Chick standing there. After a few minutes he was handcuffed and his coat, rubbers, gloves, etc., found and put on him, then he was searched and in his pockets were fonnd a jackknife, wallet and $111.75 in money.

Did not search the house thoroughly that night. Wesley had on a new suit of clothes and was completely dressed. The men started for the Charles Young house taking Wesley with them. Stanley took Wesley from the house to the wagon. While Mr. Ridlon was getting his mittens, Wesley broke away from Stanley and ran around the Young house into the street towards home. They got him again at Isaac Stanley's and took him to the village.

Wesley showed them where his old clothes were and they were found about three-fourths of a mile from Kezar Falls. George Weeks and Roland Stanley picked up the clothes.

In a second search that was made on Chick's person was found one $10 bill, one $20 bill and 25c in change, also a handkerchief and some cigars. Thursday morning Wesley was left with Deputy Sheriff Palmer, and Ridlon with some others went in search of Chick's gun and the wallet. The gun was found lying on the ground near where the fire was back of the Varney barn with a coat thrown over it, and the wallet was about 15 feet from the fire.

Ernest Durgin, of Kezar Falls, testified that he was employed by Ridlon in the search of Friday, and that the handkerchief and jar shown by the State were the same as those they found.

The next witness was Charles W. Young, of Porter. He is a brother of Lizzie Young. Wesley Chick was indebted to him to the amount of $3.40 for candy and cigars. Wesley paid this bill with a pig. Later he run an account of $1.35 and was owing him this on the 6th of December. He knew of Wesley working some in haying.

Hattie Douglass of Kezar Falls said shoes and rubbers were to be bought for her a Christmas present, there was also talk of buying a skirt, ring, etc,

Stillman Chick, the boy's father, said Wesley had borrowed money of him the past six months. When he left home Monday morning he took with him a two quart dinner pail, a bottle and an overcoat.

George H. Towle guarded Chick Thursday night, "Wesley said: 'I can't see what they have got against me,' I replied 'What about the money' 'oh' said Wesley 'I ought to have hid that.'

"Wesley spoke of leaving his gun with his coat, while down to the Falls. He said when he came back he could not find it. He talked considerable about the murder but I cannot remember what he said. He said a number of times he was not guilty."

Prof. Robinson of Bowdoin college, witness, stated that a plateful of black substance which was given him by the government for examination proved to be a mixture of charcoal and lard. He found traces of it on a handkerchief which the government claims belonged to Chick and said that if the black substance was put on a person's face it could be easily removed with water.

Mrs. John Wilson said that she had seen Wesley Chick with a gun and when a weapon was shown her by the prosecuting attorney she said that she recognized it as the one which Chick had, because of a dark spot on the stock as well as some scratches.

Stillman Chick, father of the accused man, said that his son was away from home on the day of the murder, and that he had his gun with him.

Attorney Wright said that after consulting with his associate, Mr. Fox, that they had concluded to give no evidence on the part of the defense. The defendant is not obliged to testify in his own behalf. The State is obliged to prove every point and satisfy you in every point beyond a reasonable doubt before you can say that the prisoner at the bar is guilty of the charge of murder.

Those who attended the trial say Hon. J. S. Wright, of South Paris, and F. A. Fox, of Kezar Falls, made as good a defence as was possible considering the evidence brought out by the State.

Throughout the scathing arraignment of Assistant Attorney General Philbrook who made the closing argument for the prosecution alleging robbery as the motive of the crime and declaring that the deed was committed with malice aforethought, the prisoner sat absolutely unmoved. He endured calmly the wait of 50 minutes during which the jury deliberated, and when the jurymen filed into the court room and the foreman, Adelbert Delano, announced the verdict, "Guilty of murder in the first degree," Chick chewed a toothpick unconcernedly as he listened.

March.

When wild winds roar,
And cold rains pour,
And forests moan,
And sigh and groan,
And broken ice on the river flows,
While violets under the snow repose,
With features arch
Comes stern old March.

Standing in snow and mud
The trees begin to bud,
But leaves are shy
While frost is nigh,
And dare not burst from their nest
Till the winds are more at rest;
So, old March haste away,
For we tire of thy stay!

Come April, take thy stand,
And cheer this dreary land;
Come without delay,
And drive March away
With his cold winds and frosty air,
Thou art so very much more fair;
We will welcome you
And bid March adieu.

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Send for free sample.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

ACHED IN EVERY BONE

Chicago Society Woman Who Was Sick She Could Not Sleep or Eat, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

When a woman's kidneys go wrong her back gives out and every little task becomes a burden. She is tired, nervous, sleepless, run down—suffers daily from backache, headaches, dizzy spells, and bearing-down pains.

Don't worry over imagined "female troubles." Cure the kidneys and you will be well. Read how to find the cure.

Marion Knight, of 33 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and a well-known club woman, says: "This winter when I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I ached in every bone and had intense pains in the kidneys and pelvic organs. The urine was thick and cloudy, and I could hardly eat enough to live. I felt a change for the better within a week. The second week I began eating heartily. I began to improve generally and before seven weeks had passed I was well. I had spent hundreds of dollars for medicine that did not help me, but $6 worth of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to perfect health."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Miss Knight will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Don't Dose the Stomach in Nasal Catarrh Breathe Hyomei

No dangerous drugs or nauseous concoctions are taken into the system when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic essences of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat, and quickly kills the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane, and gives complete and permanent cure.
Hyomei is the simplest, most pleasant and the only guaranteed cure for catarrh that has been discovered. Complete outfit, $1 00; extra bottle, 50 cents.

Mann's Mill Burned.

At West Paris.

The steam clothes pin and bail wood mill, owned by Lewis M. Mann & Son, at West Paris, was totally destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $6000, upon which there was no insurance.

The fire was caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp in the packing room. The watchman, Orville Latham was in the second floor in the lathe room when he heard the noise of the explosion in the first. He immediately blew the whistle but before help could arrive the mill was a l on fire and was quickly destroyed. The fire was discovered at 10.30 o'clock.

The mill has been in operation about 12 years and emp oys some 20 hands Lewis M. Mann lives here. The firm has a mill at Milton and one at Bryant's Pond. The Milton mill has been destroyed twice and about five years ago a boiler explosion here caused a heavy loss.

OTISFIELD.

Joseph Gerrish.

Joseph Gerrish died at Lebanon, N. H., March 13, aged 78 years, 4 months and three days. He has been living with his daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Fagan, about two years. He was taken sick last December. He suffered a great deal during his sickness but was very patient through it all. Gangreen caused his death. He was kindly cared for by his daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Fagan and Josie Gerrish. He was always willing to help any one in time of trouble and much esteemed by his neghbors and friends, and will be greatly missed by the community.

He leaves two daughters and one son, Edward, and one sister, Mrs. Hulda Smith, and several grandchildren to mourn their loss. His remains were brought to his old home for bulial. Funeral at the house, March 18th, conducted by Rev. C. C. Foster. He was laid to rest in the cemetery at South Orisfield.

The flowers were beautiful and profuse. There was a pillow marked with Father at rest, and the gates ajar with father, and a snow white dove, an emblem of purity, resting on the top, a sycle of Ivy, orange blossom, a blanket of flowers with grandpa marked on it, a clock marked half past eight, the sad hour, on white ribbon and two sheaves of white, one marked brother.

His children, grandchildren and sister and many relatives were present.

Something Doing on the Road.

Not just exactly that but its on the road side. The fund for improvements on the lake shore of the highway is increasing. Our space has been so crowded with court news, interesting home items, and our plea for the road commissionership, we have omitted public acknowledgement of the funds received. The account now stands like this:

Balance to the good as last reported	$11.42
Lee M. Smith, Norway	1.00
H. B. Foster, Norway	1.00
S. P. Newhall, Boston	1.00
Cash, (promised not to print the name)	15.00
" " "	1.00

If there any others who feel to assist and don't want their name to appear, send in the money—only please give me your name and post-office address—as I want to acknowledge the receipt of it.

The accounts are kept so that any one interested can look them over. Will guarantee that ever dollar will be carefully expended.

Is It Practicable? It's Worth Trying.

We need roads and better roads than we are now having. The old ways of making roads have continued for many years and you know the result. No argument is necessary. Some roads are better than they were 25 years ago and some are not in as good condition as they were then. What shall be done?

In the past ten years we have expended in round numbers $38,000.00 and for what? Excepting bridge work and culverts, this money has been expended for repairs. Our roads as a whole are only a trifle better than they were ten years ago. Some say they are not as good. We dislike to admit this and feel that the roads have improved some little in the past decade, but the improvement is not so marked as it should be, nor so marked as it can be made at the same expenditure of money, if the town will go at it right.

How best to do it? We've had our say and told you what we'd do. We feel that we can do it. There are a dozen or twenty men in this town who can do it as well as ourselves, but will the town give them or the editor of this paper an opportunity to do it, or at least try to do it?

Paul D. Sargent, the Commissioner of Highways for the State, will be at the Court House at South Paris, Thursday, April 5th, to talk and confer with the road commissioners of the towns in this vicinity. Every road commissioner for twenty miles about here should be there and hear what he has to say and do what he suggests.

Please lay the road building proposition I have made to the town of Norway before Mr. Sargent and get his opinion of it. State the case as I have stated it and see what he will say about it. Of course he will say that the term of office—10 years—is too long, but that is the condition I'm to insist upon if I take the office and accomplish approximately what I claim I will do. It goes without saying that the selectmen during this period have a supervision with me over the roads and this is the reason for asking a continuous board of select men. This is, the whole board should not be changed at any one election during the ten years.

I'm willing to leave my case, as stated in this paper to Mr. Sargent, who is thoroughly in earnest for the economical construction of good roads.

A prominent citizen was recently interviewed and expressed himself to a Sun reporter as deeming the scheme impracticable. In his opinion it was inadvisable to elect a man to any office for ten years. "If he was a good man it would be all right, but if he wasn't we would want to get him out. Mr. Sanborn is a successful business man and a good editor, but we have had no indications that he knows any more than the rest of us about road making."

That is more or less true and especially true as regards road making. No man can make a satisfactory road out of the material we have been using for the past quarter of a century. That is out of the question.

Give me road making machinery; a ten year term of office; a continuous board of selectmen, as advisors, and the same sized appropriation as in the past ten years, we'll come pretty near making good our promises to you.

Twelve Miles Permanent Roads.

TO THE EDITOR OF NORWAY ADVERTISER:—I have been reading your articles about improved roads for Norway with interest. I have spent some of my most enjoyable days there, and may spend more, and am therefore pleased whenever I hear of anything that promises to be a benefit to the town. I know from experience that a permanent road must be an improvement.

I moved from Boston to Mattapoisett, Mass., some twenty-five years ago and found conditions here much as they now are in Norway, appropriating some thousands of dollars each year and applying it in the form of a top dressing on the roads. The gravel we have here is not of the best. As a result, the roads were no better this year than they were the year previous.

About the second year of my residence here, I began agitation for macadanized roads stating that the stone crop was the surest one we raised, and that in the end they would prove to be the cheapest material for roads.

At first I was laughed at but after a while a few men began to think and talk with me, with the result that this was the first town in Southern Massachusetts to install a plant for the making of macadamized roads, and today we have more than twelve miles of permanent road. We are now building more than a mile each year, and shall soon have no other kind. I am sure there is not a man in town today who would go back to the days of mud roads.

P. A. ALLEN.

Mattapoisett, Mass., March 23, 1906.

NOTE.—Mattapoisett has a village population of some 1200. Our village population is nearly twice that. Mattapoisett has raised by taxation from $3000 to $4000 per year for the past ten years. They have made a mile or more of macadam road, and the balance of the appropriation has been used in repairing roads, sidewalks, bridges, clearing snow, etc.

Norway has expended an average of $3800 per year for the ten years, exclusive of snow bills.

Mattapoisett has 12 miles of permanent roads—and Norway none.

Masquerade Ball.

Company D's masquerade ball, Friday evening, was a very successful affair. Nearly all were masked and there were a large variety of costumes. It would be impossible to describe them all and do them justice. Among those which were particularly noticable were representations of Uncle Sam, Little Red Riding Hood, Fencing Girl, Goddess of Liberty, Cavalier, Clown, Indian Squaw, Shepherdess, Devil, Sisters of Mercy, Ghost, Negro Lady, Negro Boy, Sailor. Besides these were many other pretty costumes. In all about 75 were in costume. Several wore the national colors.

The order to unmask was given at the beginning of the third dance. At intermission ice cream was served.

The gallery was well filled with spectators. About 120 dance tickets were sold. The members of Company D worked hard to make the dance a success and they surely succeeded.

John A. Keene.

John A. Keene, formerly of Norway, died at his daughter's, Mrs. Samira Dunham's, at Lynn, Mass., March 9. He had lived with Mrs. Dunham thirty years, twenty-five at Norway, and the last five in Lynn.

Mr. Keene was born in Sumner, Nov. 17, 1822, the son of Juda and Mary Keene. He attended the town schools and afterwards followed the occupation of a farmer. He was married to Annis P. Bisbee, in Paris in 1852. Two children survive him, Mrs. Dunham and Adna Keen, of Norway. Mr. Keene was a Free Baptist in religion and in politics a republican.

He was a member of Harry Rust post No. 54, G. A. R., of Norway. In 1861 he enlisted from Bridgton, in Co B, 32nd Maine Infantry, and served until the close of the war.

The funeral was from his son's, Adna Keene's, of Norway, Rev. B. S. Rideout being the officiating clergyman.

Bertha Strout spent last week with friends in Harrison.

H. W. Stilson, who has been stopping in Norway, has returned to Bethel.

C. B. Cummings & Sons have hired Almore Everett in their box shop on the cutting up saw.

F. E. Tower was called to Rockland, Mass., the past week because of the serious sickness of his brother.

There will be an auction sale of horse cart, sleigh, sleds, household furniture and other articles, Saturday, March 31, at 1 o'clock.

Rev. B. S. Rideout will deliver an address at the Congregational church, next Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, on "How and where criminals are made."

Wm. C. Leavitt is making an unusually handy little article for housekeepers. It is used for scaping pots and kettles or any dish that needs scraping to clean it.

Hosea McKay of Norway, who has been working in Comet's box shop at Auburn, has returned to Norway and takes charge of C. B. Cummings & Sons' Box shop.

Gladys Keene has gone to Boston, Mass., to attend the funeral of her uncle, James L. Cummings. Mr. Cummings was a brother of Mrs. Adna Keene and Mrs. Fred Lovejoy of this place.

The stated convention of Pennesseewassee Lodge held at Castle Hall, last Thursday evening, was well attended. Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, W. E. Ricker of Portland was present and exemplified the secret work. After the work refreshments were served and a good social time enjoyed.

The Lakeview literary club will hold the next meeting at Murray Russell's Saturday evening Mar. 31.

Letter to Hon. E. E. Witt.
Norway, Maine.

Dear Sir: Two years ago, Mr. Grant Smith, Erie, Pa., painted three frame houses, and the woodwork of a brick house.

The painter estimated $116.50 for the paint, lead-and-oil.

He bought Devoe $97.40 and returned $11.60. Saved $31.10 on the paint.

Don't know the cost of the work. By the rule, the saving of labor would be from $60 to $90.

On all, from $90 to $120.

This is the tale, as it comes from Messrs W. F. Nick & Son, our agents there for 40 years.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

F. P. Stone sells our paint.

A Habit to be Encouraged.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlin's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Cough, colds, and croup, to which children are susceptible are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevents the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by Noyes Drug Store: Shurtleff's, South and West Paris. 11-14

Harking Back Thirty Years.

BY AN OLD NORWAY BAND PLAYER.

The writer, in his young and callow days, in what my friend, the editor, would call his "necktie period," was a very enthusiastic member of the Norway Brass Band, led at that time, 1876, by Walter Abbott.

The members, as near as the writer can remember, were as follows:

Leader, W. S. Abbott E flat cornet, and how he could play. He had a lip, as we termed it, that was marvelous. He could play in the band all day, and play for dancing all night without any visible change in his power. His execution was more like the warbling of a bird than the red-faced struggles of the average cornet player.

Old Clem, as we knew him, and Ches Horne made bass enough for several bands. Hod Cole extemporized on the alto, and he could do it. It made no difference whether he had any music or not, he was there all the time and no false notes.

What a jolly, contagious laugh he had; full of music and fun, the life of the crowd, ready to give and take a joke any time.

Jim Grant, patient and exact as in his work, helped us on the tenor horn.

Dennis Pike, just beginning what has been a long career with the snare drum.

"Twitch" Burnell slammed the kettle covers and his venerable father-in-law, L. B. Weeks, beat the bass drum.

Judd Morton helped us with another alto. His playing was as true to time and figure as his work, which was absolutely correct.

The writer struggled with an ancient slide trombone; and the variety of sounds, discords, flats and sharps, in time and out of time, have never been equalled by anyone, amateur or professional. Only those who have endeavored to extract harmony from a dented, crooked, sticky slide trombone knows the trials of that instrument.

Morrill Fullen, who at that time lived within hearing of the racket made by the zealous student, hunted for him with a shot gun, but he being a good runner, was able to keep out of reach until Morrill got over his wrath. He afterwards confined his practice to reasonable hours.

Under ordinary conditions and with most any other band he would have been turned down, but as he agreed not to play very loud only when sure of the note, and as the long slide gave a distinguished appearance to the band, he was allowed to wear a uniform and carry the instrument.

Horace Pike played the piccolo. Alton O'Brion a tenor and a Burnell from Bridgton a B-flat cornet. All were good faithful and efficient players.

There were more who "also ran" with the band, but there seems to be nothing they were noted for, and are forgotten by the writer, as no doubt he is by them.

In the summer of 1876 Horace Cole and Elias Woodsum built and launched the "Annie," a small steamboat known amongst the band as "Gentle Annie," much to Horace's disgust.

Woodsum built the engines and they were not exactly quadruple expansion, but were somewhat on the broncho type, liable to buck or balk any time. No one but Elias could run them and he "had his troubles."

Horace Cole also had an island at the upper end of the lake, where he had built a very small shelter, the first of the cottages on the lake.

At one band meeting soon after the launching of "Gentle Annie" Horace invited the band up to the island to spend the day.

We started off on one of our unequalled July mornings, getting up to Cole's boat house early. Woodsum at the engine, armed with monkey wrench, crow bar and a bucket of horse manure to stop leaks in the boiler.

Horace was pilot, captain, crew, roustabout and host.

Soon after getting up steam, Horace while endeavoring to turn the boat, was standing on the bows pushing her off into the stream. His foot slipped. On his way to the water the slack of his pants caught on a hook handy, on the boat, holding him for a minute spread like some huge bachtrachian fish bait, then a rip, tear and splash and Horace disappears beneath the bows of "Gentle Annie.'

All to the rescue soon brought him up none the worse for the ducking, but the pants were a dead loss and gave us no end of fun for the day.

Elias soon had us safely on the island. Tents were pitched, blankets spread, cards brought out, then various games were started.

Conversation with a few was monosyllabic, (don't know what they meant,) sounded like "your chip," "ante," "i pass," "what is your limit," "I see you."

Others wandered round the island, fishing, reading, practicing on some piece of music.

The writer was trying to get the trombone to slide. Cole suggested rubbing the slide with a pork rind. Clem thought coarse sand would improve it.

After a fine dinner gotten up by the late S. H. Walcott the band played through the book from clear love of the work.

While giving one of the smooth, low passages, an extra blast from Clem's big tuba broke in, breaking up the band.

"What is the matter?" Clem asked Abbott.

"There was a fly on the music. I thought it was an extra note," said Clem, turning very red.

From that time on, Abbott wanted to know if there was a fly on it, if anything went wrong.

Horace now proposed that they give one of Ezra Stevens' shows.

So with L. B. Weeks as the bear and Clem as trainer, Horace as Stevens, with leaves between his fingers as money, the show began, and Ezra in his palmiest days, never equalled the show given.

Weeks climbed the tent pole, Clem urging him on, talking French, both sweating streams; Horace, talking himself hoarse, suspended banging, pants torn from middle of the leg to waistband, red-faced and sweating, talking faster than old Ezra himself, giving us a show that no price would equal.

Well, the old band is gone.

Only Dennis Pike left of the old crowd who is playing.

Abbott, Weeks, Clement, Cole, Grant have joined the great majority.

The new band may or may not play better, but we old members never will think they can beat us on all round work, or have half as much fun.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for it. Two Relate their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women wholare approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely frec of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with displacement of the organs for years and was passing through the change of life. My abdomen was badly swollen; my stomach was sore; I had dizzy spells, sick headaches, and was very nervous. "I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me and I have passed safely through the change of life, a well woman. I am recommending your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. Annie E. G. Hyland, Chestertown, Md.

Another Woman's Case

"During change of life words cannot express what I suffered. My physician said I had a cancerous condition of the female organs. One day I read some of the testimonials of women who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it and to write you for advice. Your medicine made me a well woman, and all my bad symptoms soon disappeared.

"I advise every woman at this period of life to take your medicine and write you for advice."—Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle, Salem, Ind.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

WEST PORTER.

J. T. Libby went to Kexar Falls, Friday.

Teams are busy hauling in their lumber to the mill.

George Lovering, of Milton Mills, N. H., was in town, Monday.

Lewis Thompson is helping Horace Day cut oak timber a few days.

R. Libby has a water pail that has been in use about 40 years and is quite good yet.

Clinton Durgin, of Kezar Falls, has been hauling cord wood from West Porter to Kezar Falls.

Eugene Danforth returned home Friday, from South River logging camp, where he has been at work a short time.

Rev. Wm. H. Cotton, of Waterboro, stopped in this place Thursday night, and expects to hold services at the Center, Sunday.

Milton Varney was hauling timber for Freeman Day, Friday, to the mill. Herbert Weeks, of Freedom, N. H., was at the Douglass mill after lumber.

BUCKFIELD.

Our Veteran Correspondent Talks.

Here I come again. Thought I would not try again and invited a nice young lady to take it up but after considering the matter she declined.

I never could fancy the old man who was always boasting that he knew just as much and could do just as much as he ever could. I have dropped out of various branches of business in my time for the reason I had passed the Rubicon. Farming, mercantile and mechanical pursuits, everything has dropped out except writing for the press, and in this I have not failed to admonish the necessity of new blood.

My thoughts and fingers are the only parts of my anatomy over which I have control, hence I can make these senses assist each other.

My days are bad and my nights are horrible, and in a manner I can seem to have a bird's eye view of the person in the decline of life without home or friends, and it would not be hard for me to coincide with some of the modern views lately discussed by Norton and others.

Here I'll tell a little story. I have mentioned it before but recently I learn that they have strung it on to Jim Withee's list. He is welcome to his own but not to Nat's originality.

While living in the town of Sumner I was sent to a man in Paris to buy a double harness. Hunting up my man we failed to trade. He was well along in years and I had passed the first half century. We fell to talking shop. I told him that I used to trade some and used to make it pay, but after our approach to 50 years as a rule men failed in their capacity for trade. They either come up smarter or we lose our hold.

"Well," says the man, "I used to trade and make something but they lie so like the devil nowadays that I can't do anything."

I was willing to attribute it to senile decay but he doubtless was a believer in total depravity.

No, Sanborn, I can't vote for you but am not past making suggestions. Have not you "a yellow dog fund" that you might appropriate to the end that you may succeed?

A Question that Every Man Should Decide for Himself.

There is one subject in which many of us are interested and that is, what is the quickest way of getting rid of a troublesome cold? Is it best to take some new remedy put out with exaggerated claims, or to pin your faith to Chamberlins' Cough Remedy, a preparation that has won a world wide reputation and immense sale by its cures of this disease? This remedy is for sale by Noyes Drug Store: Shurtleff's, South and West Paris. 11-14

NORTH LOVELL.

Frank Chandler is at work for Lewis E. McAllister.

The Rebecca's had a baked bean supper, March 12.

Marguerite McKeen has returned to her home in Fryeburg.

Mrs. Abbie McKeen has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. Susie Nelson is staying with her sister, Mrs. Benjamin McKeen.

George and Fred Harriman have sold their horses to N. T. Fox, of Lovell.

Mrs. Marshall Evens has gone to South Paris and Lewiston, to visit relatives.

Fran McAllister, of South Paris, visited his grandmother, Mrs. Sophy McAllister recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Harriman attended the masquarade ball at North Waterford, March 17.

REV. B. S. RIDEOUT, PRESENT CONGREGATIONALIST PASTOR.

Norway Churches, Their Founders and Pastors.

By C. F. Whitman.

No. 2.

In 1853 a Second Congregational society was organized but the two churches have always been under the same pastorate, and for the purposes of this article will be treated as one.

Of the strong men who were founders of the society in the village, John L. Horne and Isaac A. Denison should not be passed over without mention. Without them it is safe to say that it would not have been what it is to-day. At one period they saved the society from financial embarrassment, paid up a large debt and took it upon their own shoulders. Mr. Horne for many years carried on the tanning business in the place, and it was noted that even after his own children had left school, he always attended the town and school meetings, and invariably voted for raising money, and when too his taxes must have been something of a burden to him. S. Dexter Andrews, also a strong pillar of the society and who had no children to attend school, never failed to be present at a meeting called for raising money for school purposes and always voted aye.

Isaac A. Denison was a merchant in Norway for 26 years. He came here from Vermont with his two brothers, Adna C. and Lucius Denison. They were Universalists but he was a Congregationalist. The writer never saw Isaac A. Denison's equal "behind a counter" except one—Hon. Zadoc Long of Buckfield, father of ex-Sec. of the Navy, Hon. John D. Long. Mr. Denison went to Mechanic Falls in 1875 and has been in trade there ever since. He was 85 years old in June last.

And good old Dea. Thos. G. Goodwin, what a pleasant recollection his name brings back to me. Among all the people, who, for the prosperity of the society, have contributed of their means and their blessings and their prayers, none will be longer remembered, or more thoroughly respected and loved. He was the personification of Christian duty.

Deacon Osgood Perry, now over eighty, has passed a long life of faithful service in the church. He forms the connecting link between the two societies—the past and the present. He has served as a deacon in both churches. There is no more conscientious man anywhere and no better one. Duty to him has the force of command. These are only a few of the many prominent men of the town, who have contributed towards the success and usefulness of this society.

Of the clergymen we may mention:—Rev. Charles Packard, a graduate of Bowdoin college, who besides his pastorate work was greatly interested in education. His wife was a daughter of Uriah Holt, esq., before mentioned.

Rev. Charles Soule was a direct descendant of George Soule, who came to America in the Mayflower. He also graduated at Bowdoin. He too was deeply interested in education, for a period had the principalship of Bridgton Academy, and at another time of Washington Academy. He was one of the most scholarly of all the pastors the society has ever had.

Among the pastors of this society most worthy of mention is Rev. Charles L. Mills, who came here in 1875. He was then past middle age and in the fulness of his pastorate life. He had a warm and sympathetic heart, a noble, manly and lovable nature. If he essayed to lead he did not show it but nevertheless he was followed as a shepherd by his flock. He did not stay here a great while, but during that time he endeared himself to not a few, who will never forget, while life lasts, what he was. Over a quarter of a century has passed away since he closed his labors in Norway, but the recollection of his fatherly interest in the writer, his nobility of soul, his intellectuality and his sterling qualities are as fresh and vivid as when I saw him last. He died in 1884. The influence of such a man never dies. His life is a perpetual sermon.

The present pastor of the society is Rev. Bates S. Rideout. He was born in Garland, Me., and graduated at Bates college. After he finished his theological studies he came to Norway and was settled over the Congregational society. This was in 1887. Under his pastorate, the society has been strengthened numerically, financially and spiritually. Mr. Rideout has kept abreast of the times. He is a manly man of scholarly attainments, independent character, and with a spirit and purpose that scorns to compromise with anything which savors of wrong doing. In consequence he is a leader, worthy of the support and love of his people, and the respect and confidence of the community in which he has so long resided. Education and temperance claim much of his attention and interest, and all movements calculated to improve the condition of society have his cordial support. Mr. Rideout has become a great force for good in the village and town, as has his society. On account of the pressure of literary work and the requirements of his pastorate labors, he has several times refused the position of town Superintendent of Schools. He has served for years as a member of the trustees of the Norway Public Library and is now one of the purchasing committee and vice president of the board.

HILLS

PRACTICAL GRADUATE OPTICIAN.

The only optician in this county who has ever personally attended an Optical School and has diploma for same.

Hills is recommended by nearly every first-class Physician in Oxford County, what more do you want?

If your eyes need treatment go to your regular Physician, IT'S SAFER than fooling with Quack Doctors and Fake Opticians.

NORWAY ADVERTISER, 1895, 11 years ago, says:—"Vivian W. Hills, our leading optician has been in Portland the greater part of the past few weeks, taking a post-graduate optician's examination, under the charge of a celebrated New York oculist. This examination, and practice at the Eye and Ear Infirmary must necessarily be a benefit to Mr. Hills in his examination of the eye. Mr. Hills took his first course ten years ago in Chicago and ever since has been in advance of all others. He also was the first in Oxford County to make a specialty of fiting the eye for all errors."

Hills' prices are the lowest. Why pay $5.00, $4.00 or $3.50 when you can get the very same at Hills for $2.50. Why pay $2.50, $2.00, when you can get the same at Hills for $1.00?

Don't understaad us saying we are the only one who can fit you—some "traveling men," "spectacle dealers," "would be opticians" and "quack doctors" will fit you so you can see, but you will pay double the price that HILLS would ask you for the same. How do you know but a pair fitted by HILLS would be less strain on the eye? Try it, for why take chances? Don't fool with your eyes.

Anyone can sell Glasses, WE FIT THEM.

Saved Masonic Hall.

Sunday forenoon the Masonic hall was discovered to be on fire and as the janitor was not present, D. Perkins and A. Ingalls broke the door in with an ax and found the fire had caught from the chimney. They cut away the woodwork and with the aid of a fire extinguisher soon put it out. Dudley Perkin's store was under the hall and was uninsured, and F. Witham's buildings within a few feet so that a few minutes later the whole would have been burned.

Veal calves and shotes are in great demand.

Margie Moulton does not improve and her friends have little hope of her recovery.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

WEST PARIS.

More About the Fire.

Last Thursday evening at 10.30 when nearly every one had retired for the night, the alarm of fire was sounded through our quiet little village. Men, women and children rushed to the scene of disaster. The clothes pin and pail handle mill of L. M. Mann & Son was all on fire. The men worked heroically with what few ladders and pails were available. In less than an hour the building was flat. Two or three small out buildings and all the lumber were saved. The enamel building, which was in front of the mill, was saved with much hard fighting. If this had gone the house of Samuel Estes across the road would have stood a very hard chance of being saved. $1,000 worth of clothes pins all ready to ship were in mill and only a few boxes of them were saved. The boiler and engine were not harmed much.

Auverne Lapham rushed to the packing room when he heard the explosion and immediately used one of the fire extinguishers on the blaze, which was well started. Finding it was getting the best of him he left the extinguisher still running and hastened to the engine to blow an alarm, which he continued to blow as long as there was any steam, by fastening a wire to the whistle and securing at a distance outside. There was no insurance.

The community expresses much sympathy for Mr. Mann for his great loss. They also feel very grateful to him that he has decided to rebuild. Some of his men have already got the debris cleared away, while others have been sent to Milton, where he has another mill, to get out the frame for the new building. The new mill will be 66 by 36 feet, which is 16 feet longer and some wider than the old one but not so high.

We earnestly wish this calamity would arouse our citizens to the duty of forming at least a hook and ladder company with some chosen leader, who would have the authority to conduct systematic work in time of need. The ladies would surely be glad to furnish a complimentary dinner each time the fire company was called out. Some day our village will be needlessly sacrificed because of neglect in the way of fire protection.

Mrs. Geo. Berry is visiting her son Ed. at Norway.

Mrs. Laura Reed has been very poorly for a few weeks past.

S. W. Dunham is on the gain and the trained nurse has gone.

The Universalist society held a parish meeting, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. R. Bucknam is having an attack of the grip. Amanda Haynes is working for her.

Mrs. Dora Jackson is assisting in the postoffice while Cora Young is having a few weeks' vacation.

Madge Tuell had a pleasant evening with her young friends, Tuesday, it being her 12th birthday.

L. B. Swan, who has been in poor health all winter, had another attack of illness. He is better now.

H. S. Day & Co., who succeeded N. M. Small & Son, have just put up a nice new sign in front of their place of business.

Esther, oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. F. Nelson, entertained a party of about twenty of her young friends, the 16th of this month, it being her 9th birthday.

Rev. D. F. Nelson entertained his Sabbath school class and several other friends, about twenty, one evening last week. A clam supper, ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

Mrs. F. S. Farnum has added a new feature to her business, that of dressmaking, with Ola Swan to cut and fit. They also will make shirt waists, skirts, etc., to sell. Ella M. Curtis is helping her in the millinery work.

About twenty members of the Granite Chapter, O. E. S., went from here to Bryant's Pond by special invitation of the Jefferson Chapter and worked a degree on two candidates. They went in double sleighs and had a good time. Choice refreshments were served.

Schools commenced this week with Ruby M. Smith of Bethel, principal, with Blanche Penley assistant of the grammar grade and Ethel Howe in the primary. The children have had such a long enforced vacation that they are delighted to go and ready for the best of work.

The first four classes of the Universalist Sabbath school were entertained at Mrs. L. C. Bates', last Thursday. The primary classes about twenty in all went in the afternoon and each received an orange at parting. The young people about fifteen in the evening enjoyed a very pleasant social. Buttered pop corn and assorted candies were served as a treat.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the left hand social, last Tuesday evening, at H. C. Lane's. Rev. Howard Clifford of South Paris gave a very interesting half hour talk on his travels in Italy. A few games were also played. A nice treat of cake and fruice was served. About 25 were present. The traveling was very sloppy preventing many who might otherwise have attended. About $4 were taken.

It is next Sunday morning, April 1st, at the Free Baptist church that Christina Koch will give an illustrated talk to the young people. All are cordially invited. This will be the last time she will come to West Paris as she has decided to go West to be with her brother, who is poorly. Her sister, Margaret, who is better known in Maine in the Christian Endeavor work, will speak here Easter Sunday, April 15th.

The West Paris Grange will hold their fair next Thursday afternoon and evening, April 5th, at Dunham's Hall. Supper of baked beans and pastry will be served from 6 to 7 30. The entertainment in the evening will consist of a farce entitled "The Persecuted Dutchman," readings, vocal and instrumental music. A social will follow with ice cream and cake on sale. The proceeds of the affair to go for the good of the order.

WEST STONEHAM.

Lottie Adams visited her sister, Mrs. Curtis Bickford of East Stoneham, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Harriman and little grandson, Guy, of North Lovell called on friends in this vicinity last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson McAllister and two little sons, Carroll and Stillman, of North Waterford visited her parental home last Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gammon are quite sick with severe colds and under the care of a physician. Aunt Joan McAllister of West Lovell is staying with them.

Weston Hazeltine of Lovell and S. C. McAllister of North Lovell recently called on their brother-in-law, J. C. Sawyer, who is laid up by falling on the ice and injuring his back. Elden McAllister is doing his chores.
